PH.D. THESIS

BY

RUDIMENTS OF VOCAL MUSIC.

LESSON I.

1. THE first sounds to be learned in vocal music are the eight notes, called the Octave. They may be sung to the syllables, faw, sol, law, faw, sol, law, mi, faw, in ascending, and in descending, faw, mi, law, sol, faw, law, sol, faw.*

These should be practised until the pupils become familiar with all the sounds and syllables, ascending and descending.

QUESTIONS.

1. What are the first sounds to be learned in vocal music ?

The eight notes, ascending and descending, called the Octave.

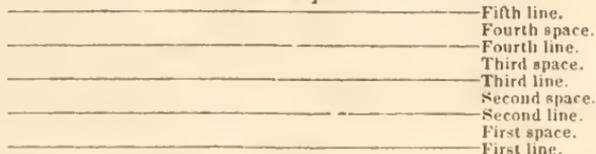

2. To what syllables may they be sung ?

In ascending, faw, sol, law, faw, sol, law, mi, faw, and descending, faw, mi, law, sol, faw, law, sol, faw.

LESSON II.

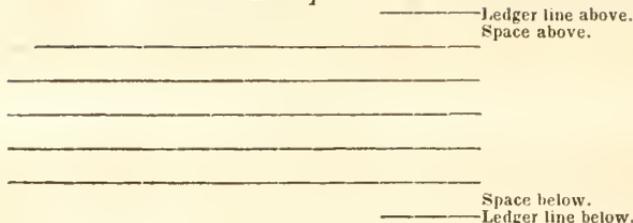

2. Music is written upon lines and spaces, called a staff. The staff contains nine degrees, five lines and four spaces, which are counted from the lowest upward, first line, first space, second line, second space, &c.

Example.

When more lines and spaces are wanted than are contained in the staff, a short line is added which is called a ledger line.

* Teachers who prefer the use of other syllables, may easily substitute them upon the Black Board, which is considered the most practicable mode of presenting to the mind of the pupil the principles of music.

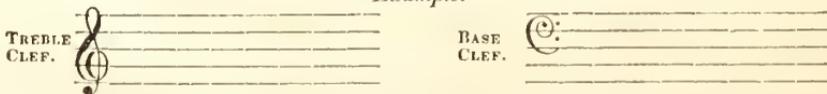

Example.

QUESTIONS.

3. What are those lines and spaces called?
A staff.
4. What is the use of a staff?
Musical characters are written upon it.
5. How many degrees does the staff contain?
Nine; five lines and four spaces.
6. How are they counted?
From the lowest upward.
7. What is a ledger line?
A short line added above, or below the staff, for very high, or low sounds.

LESSON III.

3. In music there are seven primary sounds, which are represented upon the staff by the seven first letters of the alphabet, A. B. C. D. E. F. G. The situation of the letters is designated by the Clefs, of which there are two in common use. The G Clef is used for the Trebles, Alto, and Tenor, and is placed upon the third line. The F Clef is used for the Base, and is placed upon the fourth line.

Example.

The seven primary sounds are represented upon the staff, according to the Treble Clef, in the following order. The lower ledger line is called C, the space below the staff D, the first line is called E, the first space F, the second line G, the second space A, the third line B, the third space C, the fourth line D, the fourth space E, the fifth line F, the space above G, and the upper ledger line A.

Example.

Situation of the letters according to the TREBLE CLEF.

— A — Upper ledger line.
 — G — Space above the staff.
 — F — Fifth line.
 — E — Fourth space.
 — D — Fourth line.
 — C — Third space.
 — B — Third line.
 — A — Second space.
 — G — Second line.
 — F — First space.
 — E — First line.
 — D — Space below the staff.
 — C — Lower ledger line.

Situation of the letters according to the BASE CLEF.

— C — Upper ledger line.
 — B — Space above the staff.
 — A — Fifth line.
 — G — Fourth space.
 — F — Fourth line.
 — E — Third space.
 — D — Third line.
 — C — Second space.
 — B — Second line.
 — A — First space.
 — G — First line.
 — F — Space below the staff.
 — E — Lower ledger line.

QUESTIONS.

8. How many primary sounds are there in music ?
Seven.
9. How are they represented upon the staff ?
By the seven first letters of the alphabet.
10. What is a Clef ?
A character used to designate the situation of the letters upon the staff.
11. How many clefs are there in common use ?
Two ; the Treble, or G clef, and the Base, or F clef.
12. How are the letters situated on the staff, according to the Treble Clef ?
C is the lower ledger line, D is the space below the staff, E is the first line, &c.

Note.—It is recommended to teachers, to avail themselves of the use of the Black Board, by which means they can put the questions to the school collectively, and let all answer until they shall become so familiar, as to give the correct letter to any line or space to which their attention may be called.

13. How are the letters situated on the staff according to the Base Clef?

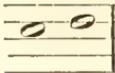

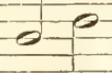

The lower ledger line is E, the space below the staff is F, the first line is G, &c.

Note.—The classes who do not sing the base, need not recite the letters on the staff.

LESSON IV.

4. Notes are characters written upon the staff as signs or symbols of sound, showing their length and order. There are six kinds, viz.: a Semibreve, Minim, Crotchet, Quaver, Semiquaver, and Demisemiquaver. The semibreve may be considered a whole note, the minim a half, the crotchet a quarter, the quaver an eighth, the semiquaver a sixteenth, and the demisemiquaver a thirty-second.

Example.

Semibreves.	Minims.	Crotchets.	Quavers.	Semiquavers.	Demisemiquavers.

Whole.	Halves.	Quarters.	Eighths.	Sixteenths.	Thirty-seconds.

Therefore one semibreve is equal to two minims, or four crotchets, or eight quavers, or sixteen semiquavers, or thirty-two demisemiquavers. A point placed at the right of either of these notes adds to it one-half of its previous length; thus a pointed semibreve is sounded as long as three minims, a pointed minim as long as three crotchets, &c.

Example.

Pointed Notes.
Their value.

A figure 3, placed over or under any three notes, shows that they are to be performed in the time of two notes of the same kind. Such notes are called Triplets.

[V]
QUESTIONS.

14. What are notes ?

Characters written upon the staff as signs, or symbols, of sound, showing their length and order.

15. How many kinds of notes are there ?

Six.

16. What are they called ?

Semibreve, Minim, Crotchet, Quaver, Semiquaver, and Demisemiquaver.

17. What would you call them to speak in the language of numerals ?

The Semibreve is a whole note, or unit, the Minim a half, the Crotchet a quarter, the Quaver an eighth, the Semiquaver a sixteenth, and the Demisemiquaver a thirty-second.

Note.—The teacher will mark the different notes on the Black Board, and question the class.

LESSON V.

5. As notes are symbols of sound, so are rests marks of silence, bearing the names of the notes, and requiring the performers to remain silent as long as they would be singing a note of the same name. A point augments the length of a rest, as in the case of notes.

Example.

Semibreve.	Minim.	Crotchet.	Quaver.	Semiquaver.	Demisemiquaver.
Unit.	Half.	Quarter.	Eighth.	Sixteenth.	Thirty-second.

QUESTIONS.

18. What are rests ?

Marks of silence.

19. How many such marks are there ?

Six : a Semibreve rest, Minim rest, Crotchet rest, Quaver rest, Semiquaver rest, and Demisemiquaver rest.

20. What would you call them to speak in the language of numerals ?

A unit, half, quarter, eighth, sixteenth, and thirty-second.

Note.—The teacher will exhibit the rests upon the Black Board, question, and explain.

LESSON VI.

6. The Octave, or eight notes, written upon the staff, forms the diatonic scale, which consists of five tones and two semitones ; the distance from one sound in the scale to another, is called an interval, but in the regular ascending and descending scale, they are called tones and half tones ; from one to two, and from two to three, are whole tones ; from three to four is a half tone ; from four to five, from five to six, and from six to seven, are whole tones, and from seven to eight is a half tone.

Example.

DIATONIC SCALE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

faw sol law faw sol law mi faw ; faw mi law sol faw law sol faw
do re mi faw sol law si do ; do si law sol faw mi re do

QUESTIONS.

21. When the Octave is written upon the staff, what does it form ?
The diatonic scale.
22. What is the diatonic scale ?
A series of intervals, consisting of five tones and two semitones.
23. Where do the semitones occur in the Octave ?
Between the third and fourth, and seventh and eighth.
24. In the application of syllables to the sounds, where do the semitones occur ?
Between law and faw, and mi and faw, (or mi and faw, and si and do.)

Note.—The teacher should let the class practise the Octave in one of the above series of syllables, more or less rapidly, and with different forms of accent, counting and beating the time, according to the movement, until, by the power of association, the syllables will bring the sounds to the mind.

See Lessons for Exercise, pages xiv. and xv.

LESSON VII.

VARIOUS MUSICAL CHARACTERS EXPLAINED.

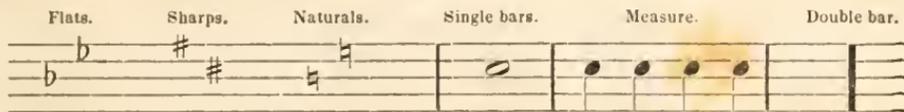

7. A flat is a ♭, which, when placed at the left hand of a note, lowers the sound a half tone ; A sharp is a kind of star (#), which raises the sound of a note half a tone. A natural (♮) restores a note previously made flat or sharp to its original sound. When flats or sharps are placed at the beginning of a tune, they are called the signature ; when placed before a note, accidentals, and extend their influence through the measure in which they occur. A single bar is a straight line drawn across the staff to divide the notes of a tune into equal measures. A measure is all the notes contained between two single bars. A double bar shows the end of a strain, or a line of the poetry.

A brace shows how many parts are to be performed together. A slur or tie shows the number of notes to be sung to one syllable.

When the staff is dotted across, it shows that the part is to be repeated. A pause, or hold, is a small semicircle with a dot under it, and when placed over, or under a note, that note must be prolonged beyond its usual time. When notes are to be sung in a very short, pointed manner, they are marked with small points called staccato marks.

Examples.

QUESTIONS.

25. What is the use of a flat ?
It lowers the sound of a note half a tone.
26. A sharp ?
It raises the sound of a note half a tone.
27. A natural ?
It restores a note made flat or sharp to its original sound.
28. When flats or sharps are placed at the beginning of a tune, what are they called ?
The signature.
29. When placed before a note, what are they called ?
Accidentals.

30. How far do accidentals extend their influence?
Through the measure in which they occur.
31. What is the use of a single bar?
To divide the notes of a tune into equal measures.
32. What is a measure?
All the notes contained between two single bars.
33. What is the use of a double bar?
It shows the end of a strain, or line of poetry.
34. What is the use of a brace?
It shows how many parts are to be performed together.
35. What is the use of a slur, or tie?
It shows the notes which are to be sung to one syllable.
36. What is the use of the dots across the staff, called a repeat?
It shows what part of the tune is to be performed twice.
37. What is the use of a hold or pause?
It shows that the note, over or under which it is placed, is to be prolonged beyond its usual time.
38. What is the use of staccato marks?
They show that the notes over which they are placed must be sung in a very short, and pointed manner.

LESSON VIII.

8. The letters never change their places upon the staff, but the syllables do. The O-tave does not always begin on the lower ledger line C, as in lesson 6, but may begin on any line, or space, on the staff. The syllable mi is the leading note, and governs all the others.

When we ascertain the locality of this syllable, the others have a corresponding arrangement, as in lesson 6, where the mi is found upon the line B, its natural place; but if a flat be found upon B, the syllable mi is removed to E, which is the first line, and fourth space; the next highest note is fa, the next sol, the next la, &c.

Note.—The following table of flats and sharps must be committed to memory.

The teacher can question the class from the Black Board.

If B be flat, mi is removed to	- - -	E	If F be sharp, mi is removed to	- -	F
If B and E be flat	“ “ - - -	A	If F and C be sharp	“ “ - -	C
If B , E and A be flat	“ - - -	D	If F , C , and G be sharp	“ “ - -	G
If B , E , A and D be flat	“ - - -	G	If F , C , G and D be sharp	“ - -	D

This removal of the syllables to the different lines and spaces, is called transposition,

39. Do the letters ever change their places upon the staff?
 They do not.
40. Do the syllables?
 They do: the Octave may begin on any line or space in the staff.
41. Which of the syllables govern the others and fix their places upon the staff?
 The syllable mi.
42. Where is the natural place for mi?
 On the third line, B.
43. But if B be flat, to what letter is the mi removed?
 To E, on the first line, or fourth space.
44. What is the next syllable above?
 Faw.—The next? Sol.—The next? Law, &c.
45. If a sharp be placed upon F, to where is the syllable mi removed?
 To F.
46. Can you recite the table of Flats and Sharps?
 If B be flat, mi is removed to E, &c.
47. What is this removal of the syllables called?
 Transposition.

LESSON IX.

9. You have learned, that single bars are used to divide the notes of a tune into equal measures; these measures are again divided into several parts, as expressed by appropriate figures at the clef, and marked by a motion of the hand, called beating time. There are three kinds of time, called Common, Triple, and Compound.

Note.—The characters $\overline{\text{C}}$ or $\overline{\text{C}}$ are sometimes used to denote common time, but it is recommended to discard their use altogether, and substitute numerals.

Common time has three varieties of measure, the first is expressed by the figures $\overline{\text{2}}$ the second variety by the figures $\frac{\overline{\text{4}}}{\text{4}}$ and the third variety, by the figures $\frac{\overline{\text{2}}}{\text{4}}$. The upper figures indicate the parts of a measure; the under figures, the fractional part of a semibreve or whole note: thus, in the first variety, two half notes, or their equal in other notes, or rests, fill a measure. In the second variety, four quarter notes, or their value, fill a measure, and in the third variety, two quarter notes, or their value, fill a measure.

In the first, and third variety, two motions of the hand are required in beating time, down, and up. In the second variety four motions of the hand are required down, left, right, up.

Note.—The terms Adagio, Allegro, &c. [see explanation of musical terms, page xvi.] sometimes so influence the movement, that, when music is written in one variety of time, it is actually performed in another. Thus, music written in the second variety of common time, is often performed in the first.

Accent is a stress of voice, which falls on the first part of the measure, in the first and third variety of common time, and on the first and third parts of the measure in the second variety.

QUESTIONS.

48. How many kinds of time are there ?

Three ; Common, Triple, and Compound.

49. How many varieties has common time ?

Three.

50. How is the first variety expressed ?

By the figures $\frac{2}{2}$.

51. The second ?

By the figures $\frac{4}{4}$.

52. The third ?

By the figures $\frac{2}{4}$.

53. What do the figures indicate ?

The upper figure shows the parts of a measure, the under figure the fractional parts of a whole note.

54. In the first variety, what note or notes fill a measure ?

Two half notes, or their value, as indicated by the figures.

55. What will fill a measure in the second variety.

Four quarter notes, or their value.

56. What in the third variety ?

Two quarter notes, or their value.

57. How many motions of the hand are required in beating the first variety of common time ?
Two ; one down, and one up.
58. The second variety ?
Four ; down, left, right, up.
59. The third variety ?
Two ; same as the first variety.
60. On what part of the measure does the accent fall, in the first and third variety of common time ?
On the first.
61. Where in the second variety ?
On the first, and third.

LESSON X.

TRIPLE TIME.

10. Triple time has three varieties ; the first is expressed by the figures $\frac{\overline{3}}{\underline{2}}$, and contains the value of three half notes in a measure.

The second is expressed by the figures $\frac{\overline{3}}{\underline{4}}$; consequently contains the value of three quarter notes in a measure.

The third variety is expressed by the figures $\frac{\overline{3}}{\underline{8}}$ showing that three eighth notes, or their value, fill a measure.

Three motions of the hand are required in beating triple time ; down, left, up ; the accent falls on the first part of the measure.

COMPOUND TIME.

Compound Time has two varieties : the first is expressed by the figures $\frac{\overline{6}}{\underline{4}}$, and contains the value of six quarter notes in a measure.

The second variety is expressed by the figures $\frac{\overline{6}}{\underline{8}}$, containing the value of six eighth notes in a measure. Two motions of the hand are required, in beating compound time. The accent falls on the first part of the measure, when filled by two notes, but when there are six notes in a measure, it falls on the first and fourth.

QUESTIONS.

62. How many varieties has Triple Time?

Three.

63. How is the first variety expressed?

By the figures $\frac{3}{2}$.

64. The second?

By the figures $\frac{3}{4}$.

65. The third?

By the figures $\frac{3}{8}$.

66. In the first variety, what will fill a measure?

Three half notes, or their value.

67. In the second variety?

Three quarter notes, or their value.

68. In the third variety?

Three eighth notes, or their value.

69. How many motions of the hand are required in beating triple time?

Three; down, left, up.

70. On what part of the measure does the accent fall?

On the first.

COMPOUND TIME.

71. How many varieties has compound time?

Two.

72. How is the first variety expressed?

By the figures $\frac{6}{4}$.

73. The second?

By the figures $\frac{6}{8}$.

74. What note or notes fill a measure in the first variety?

Six quarter notes, or their value.

75. What in the second variety ?
Six eight notes or their value.
76. How many motions of the hand are required in beating compound time ?
Two ; one down, and one up.
77. On what part of the measure does the accent fall ?
On the first, when there are but two notes in the measure.
78. When there are six notes in a measure, where does the accent fall ?
On the first and fourth.

LESSON XI.

MAJOR AND MINOR SCALE.

11. There are two scales in music, called Major and Minor. The former is bold and cheerful : the latter pathetic and mournful. The Octave, as described in Lesson 6, is in the major scale, and commences upon C, [faw,] which is the key note. The key note is that with which the scale begins, and ends. The Octave in the minor scale commences upon A, [law,] which is two degrees below the major scale. It holds the same relation in all the transpositions ; hence, when the signature is the same in the major and minor scale, they are said to be relative. The order of the semitones in the minor scale, differ from those in the major. In ascending, the semitones in the minor scale occur between the second and third, [mi and faw,] and the seventh and eighth, [sol and law,] but in descending, they occur between the fifth and sixth, [law and faw,] and the second and third, [mi and faw,] Sharps or naturals are used on the sixth and seventh degrees of the scale as accidentals, in ascending ; and naturals or flats are used as accidentals, in descending.

Note.—The teacher will practise the minor scale by the syllables, until the pupils become familiar,

QUESTIONS.

79. How many scales are there in music ?
Two.
80. What are they called ?
Major and Minor.
81. What is the peculiar effect of each scale ?
The major scale is bold and cheerful ; the minor scale is pathetic and mournful.
82. What is meant by the key note ?
The note with which the scale begins and ends.

83. What syllable is applied to the key note in the major scale?—faw.
 84. What in the minor scale?—law.
 85. What is the relative minor to any major key?
 Its third below.
 86. What is the relative major to any minor key?
 Its third above.
 87. What is the order of the semitones in the minor scale ascending?
 The semitones occur between the second and third, [mi and faw,] and the seventh and eighth [sol and law.]
 88. Where do they occur in descending the scale?
 Between the fifth and sixth, [law and faw,] and the second and third, [mi and faw.]
 89. What is the difference in ascending, and descending the minor scale?
 In ascending, the upper semitone occurs between the seventh and eighth sounds; but in descending, it occurs between the fifth and sixth.
 90. What characters are used to denote this change?
 Sharps or naturals are used on the sixth and seventh degrees of the scale as accidentals, in ascending; and naturals or flats are used as accidentals, in descending.

EXPLANATION OF MUSICAL TERMS.

Adagio, signifies the slowest movement.

Ad libitum, at the pleasure of the performer.

Affettuoso, in a style of execution adapted to express affection, tenderness, and deep emotion.

Allegro, a brisk and sprightly movement.

Allegretto, less quick than Allegro.

Alto, counter, or high tenor.

Andante, with distinctness. As a mark of time, it implies a medium between the Adagio and the Allegro movements.

Chorus, a composition, or passage designed for a full choir.

Crescendo, Cres., or \blacktriangleleft , with an increasing sound.

Da Capo, or D. C., close with the first strain.

Diminuendo, Dim., or \blacktriangleright , with a decreasing sound.

Duetto or Duet, music consisting of two parts.

Expressivo, with expression.

Forte, or For., strong and full.

Fortissimo, very loud.

Largo, a slow movement.

Larghetto, not so slow as Largo.

Moderato, between Andante and Allegro.

Piano, or Pia., soft.

Pianissimo, or P. P., very soft.

Pomposo, grand, dignified.

Presto, quick.

Spirituoso, with spirit.

Solo, single voice.

Symphony, a passage to be executed by the instruments, while the vocal performers are silent.

Trio, a composition for three voices.

Tutti, all together.

Vivace, in a brisk and lively manner.

ALLEGRO.

While angels, cloth'd in light divine, The Saviour's praises sing ; We children bow before his throne, And crown him Zion's King. Crown him, :: :: Zion's King, Crown him, :: :: Zion's King.

2 With joyful hearts and cheerful smiles,
We now our offerings bring,—
We will receive his gracious word,
And crown him Zion's King.

3 He gives us food and raiment too,
And every needful thing ;
And shall we not adore his love,
And crown him Zion's King ?

4 Then, when the toil of life is o'er,—
Upborne on eagle's wings,
We'll praise his everlasting power,
And crown him King of Kings.

Crowning the Saviour. C. M.

- 1 ALL hail the power of Jesus' name !
Let angels prostrate fall ;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small !
Hail Him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall ;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 4 Teachers, who surely know his love
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above,
And crown him Lord of all.
- 5 May we with heaven's rejoicing throng
Before his presence fall,
Join in the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

INFANTS' SONG.

S. A.

SICILIANO. PIA. PIA.

We in-fants sing To Christ, our King, A song of peace and love; The lisp-ing praise,

Which now we raise, Is heard in heav'n a - bove, Is heard in heav'n a - bove.

2 'Twas babes like us
Whom thou didst bless,
Dear Lord, and honour'd much;
"Forbid them not,"
Was their kind lot,
"My kingdom is of such."

3 Kind Saviour, still
On Zion's hill
O bless our infant band!
And be thou near
When storms appear,
To shield us with thy hand.

4 The ocean cross'd,
No wand'rer lost,
May we the haven gain,
To join the throng,
And swell the song
Of cherubs' rapt'rous strain.

Morning School Hymn. C. M.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 COME, children, let us all improve
 The morning's glorious light ;
 Come let us lift our hearts above,
 That God may guide them right. 2 Let sin be banish'd from this place,
 Ne'er to return again ;
 And may the Saviour's beauteous grace,
 On every soul remain. | 3 Let a few passing hours be spent
 In worship most sincere ;
 And our best songs to heaven be sent,
 To find acceptance there. 4 Let us invite the Saviour here,
 Our Sunday-schools to bless ;
 And lo ! we do believe him near,
 With all his righteousness. |

LARGO.

Il - lu - sive earth, thou canst not heal The wea - ry bo - som's wo ;

Like Ma - rah's bit - ter wa - ters, still Thy dark - est cur - rents flow.

The musical score consists of two systems of three staves each. The top staff is the vocal line, the middle staff is the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom staff is the left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature is two sharps (D major), and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked 'LARGO'. The first system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The second system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

2 The soul can never hope for joy,
Unmingled and serene,
But earth exhales some dread alloy,
And blights the lovely scene.

3 O, it is sad, 'mid smiles of earth,
To think, the hour will come,
When we must tread the vale of death,
Where flowerets never bloom

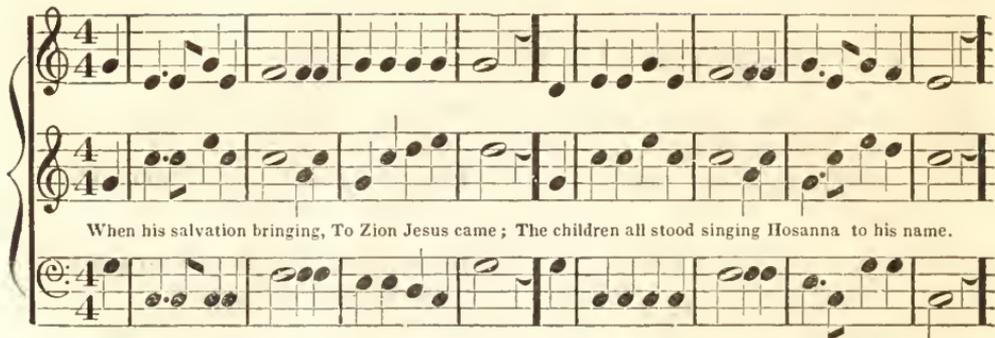

4 It is alone in higher rest,
In Eden's lovelier plain,
The soul can tell of joy possess'd,
Where holiness shall reign.

Death of a Scholar. C. M.

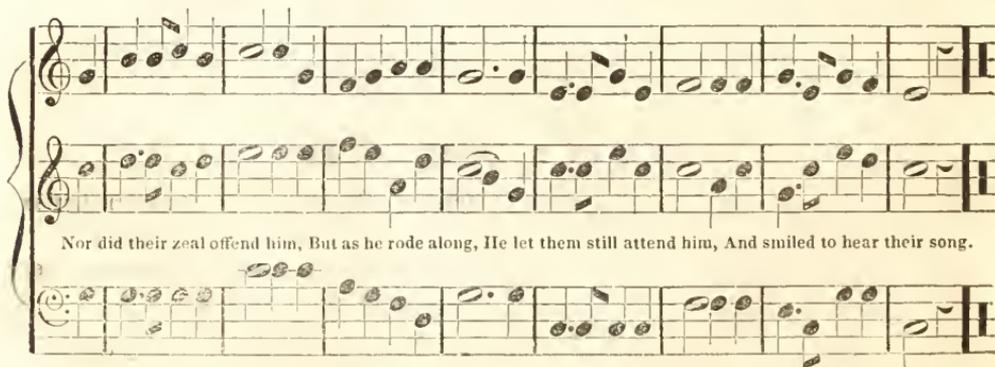

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 DEATH has been here, and borne away
 A brother from our side,
 Just in the morning of his day,
 As young as we, he died. 2 Not long ago, he filled his place,
 And sat with us to learn :
 But he has run his mortal race,
 And never can return. | 3 Perhaps our time may be as short,
 Our days may fly as fast ;
 O Lord, impress the solemn thought,
 That this may be our last ! 4 All needful strength is thine to give ;
 To thee our souls apply
 For grace to teach us how to live,
 And make us fit to die. |

Death of a Child. C. M.

| 1 'Tis Jesus speaks ! I fold, says he,
 These lambs within my breast ;
 Protection they shall find in me,
 In me be ever bless'd. 2 Death may the bands of life unloose,
 But can't dissolve my love ;
 Millions of infant souls compose
 The family above. | 3 Their feeble frames my power shall raise
 And mould with heavenly skill ;
 I'll give them tongues to sing my praise,
 And hands to do my will. 4 His words the happy parents hear,
 And shout with joy divine,
 " O Saviour ! all we have and are
 Shall be forever thine." |

When his salvation bringing, To Zion Jesus came; The children all stood singing Hosanna to his name.

Nor did their zeal offend him, But as he rode along, He let them still attend him, And smiled to hear their song.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
 His love for children still;
 Though now as King he reigneth
 On Zion's heavenly hill:
 We'll flock around his banner,
 Who sits upon the throne;
 And cry aloud, "Hosanna
 To David's royal Son."

3 For should we fail proclaiming
 Our great Redeemer's praise;
 The stones, our silence shaming,
 Might well Hosanna raise,
 But shall we only render
 The tribute of our words?
 No! while our hearts are tender,
 They, too, shall be the Lord's,

The Christian Soldier. P. M.

- 1 O WHEN shall I see Jesus,
And dwell with him above,
To drink the flowing fountains
Of everlasting love ?
When shall I be deliver'd
From this vain world of sin,
And with my blessed Jesus
Drink endless pleasures in ?
- 2 But now I am a soldier,
My Captain's gone before,
He's given me my orders
And tells me not to fear ;
And if I hold out faithful,
A crown of life he'll give,
And all his valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.
- 3 Through grace I am determin'd
To conquer though I die,
And then away to Jesus,
On wings of love I'll fly :
Farewell to sin and sorrow,
I bid them all adieu ;
And you, my friends, prove faithful
And on your way pursue.
- 4 And if you meet with troubles
And trials on the way,
'Then cast your care on Jesus,
And don't forget to pray.
Gird on the heavenly armour
Of faith, and hope, and love,
And when your race is ended,
You'll reign with him above.

The Christian's Confidence. P. M.

- 1 SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings ;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings ;
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.
- 2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new ;
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
E'en let th' unknown to-morrow,
Bring with it what it may.
- 3 It can bring with it nothing
But he will bear us through :
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too ;
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed ;
And he who feeds the ravens
Will give his children bread.
- 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there :
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice ;
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

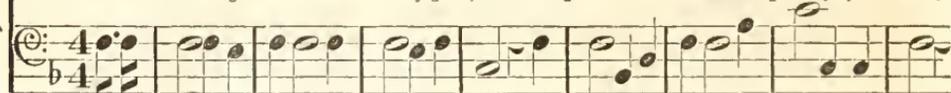

TENORE.

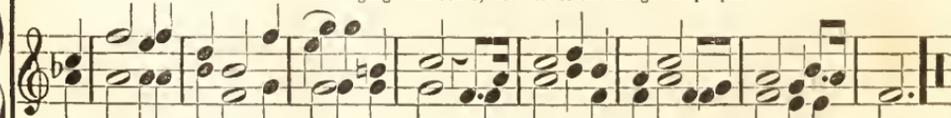

1 On the high cliffs of Jordan with pleasure I stand, And view in perspective the fair promised land;
1st and 2d Trebles.

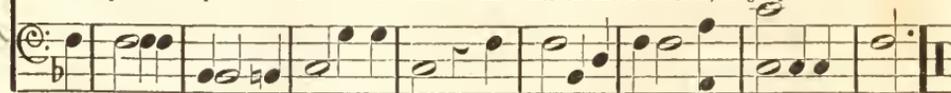

2 There rivers most graceful e - ter - nal - ly glide, And groves rich with verdure grow up by their side;

The land where the ransom'd with singing shall come, And enter the kingdom prepared as their home.

There spirits made perfect for-ev - er be - come In - mor-tal and beauteous, in glory their home.

3 'Tis there all the nations redeem'd by the Lamb,
In circles most lovely, his praises proclaim;
Through tempests, and sorrows, and perils they come,
To enter those mansions prepared as their home.

4 All over those peaceful, delectable plains,
The Lord our Redeemer in righteousness reigns;
His sceptre of empire he now doth assume,
And kindly doth welcome his followers home.

5 How bless'd are those regions, the realms of repose,
Where with fruit, O how grateful, the "tree of life" grows;
The regions ambrosial forever in bloom,
God's own habitation, the saints' happy home.

6 Those pleasures of glory, O when shall I share,
And crowns of celestial felicity wear;
And range o'er those landscapes, exempt from a sigh,
The home of our fathers, God's palace on high!

The Love of Jesus. P. M.

- 1 O JESUS, my Saviour, I know thou art mine,
For thee all the pleasures of earth I resign ;
Thou art my rich treasure, my joy, and my love,
Thou art my Redeemer, Thou reignest above.
- 2 Thy Spirit first taught me to know I was blind,
Then taught me the way of salvation to find ;
And when I was sinking in gloomy despair,
My Jesus relieved me, and bid me not fear.
- 3 In vain I attempt to describe what I feel,
'The language of mortals here ever must fail ;
My Jesus is precious, my soul's in a flame,
I am raised into raptures while praising his name.
- 4 I find him in singing, he is present in prayer,
In sweet meditation he always is near ;
My constant companion, may we never part ;
All glory to Jesus, he dwells in my heart.
- 5 If ever I loved thee, 'tis now, my dear Lord ;
I love thy dear children, thy ways, and thy word.
I love all creation, I love sinners too,
Since Jesus has died to redeem them from wo.
- 6 When happy in Jesus, I cannot forbear,
Though sinners despise me, his love to declare ;
His love overwhelms me ; had I wings I would fly,
And praise him in mansions prepared in the sky

A ROUND.

ALLEGRO.

1 A - wake, for the day-light is break-ing fast, 'Tis a beau-ti-ful Sab-bath morn-ing;

2 We'll joy-ful-ly join in the song Of praise to our hea-ven-ly King;

3 Haste! Haste! quick-ly, for we long to u-nite in the hymn.

1 De - lay not, I pray you, or you'll be last, The church bells are giv-ing us warn-ing.

2 Let earth the glad e-cho pro - long, And all na-ture with ec - sta - sy ring.

3 Haste! Haste! quick - ly, For we long to u-nite in the hymn.

N. B.—In singing this round, the school should be divided into three classes. The first class will sing the whole of the first part, to the word “warning.” The second class will then commence the first part, and the first class the second part. When the second class reaches the second part, the third class will begin on the first part, and the first class on the third part. The first class will again commence with the first part. Thus the three classes will be singing together, each a separate part, until the whole has been sung three times by each class.

Chil-dren's pray'rs he deigns to hear, Chil-dren's songs de - light his ear.

2 Glory to the Son we bring,
Christ, our prophet, priest, and king ;
Children, raise your sweetest strain,
To the Lamb, for he was slain.

3 Glory to the Holy Ghost ;
Be this day a pentecost !
Children's minds may he inspire,
Touch their tongues with holy fire.

4 Glory in the highest be
To the blessed Trinity,
For the gospel from above,
For the word that "God is love."

Chris-tian, the morn breaks sweet - ly o'er thee, And all the mid - night shadows flee ;

Tinged are the dis - tant skies with glo-ry, A bea-con light hangs out for thee.

2 Thy God is ever kind and gracious,
 He will direct thy course above,
 For thou art in his sight most precious,
 The object of his special love.
 Arise, &c.

3 Though in the proud dark waves of ocean,
 O'erwhelm'd thou need not, shalt not be ;
 Midst the fierce tempest's dread commotion
 Thy God will still remember thee.
 Arise, &c.

CHORUS, WITH SPIRIT.

A - rise, a - rise, the light breaks o'er thee, Thy name is gra-ven on the throne;

Thy home is in those worlds of glo-ry, Where thy Re-deem-er reigns a-lone.

4 Toss'd on time's rude, relentless surges,
Calmly composed, and dauntless stand;
For, lo! beyond those seas emerges
The height that bounds the promised land.
Arise, &c.

5 Christian, behold! the land is nearing,
Where the wild sea-storm's rage is o'er;
Hark! how the heavenly hosts are cheering,
See, in what throngs they range the shore!
Arise, &c.

6 Cheer up, cheer up, the day breaks o'er thee
Bright as the summer's noontide ray;
The starry crowns and realms of glory
Invite thy happy soul away. Arise, &c.

ALLEGRETTO.

Here we suffer grief and pain, Here we meet to part again, In heav'n we part no more.

CHORUS.

O! that will be joyful! Joyful, joyful, joyful! O! that will be joyful! When we meet to part no more.

2 All who love the Lord below,
When they die to heaven will go,
And sing with saints above. O! that, &c.

3 Little children will be there,
Who have sought the Lord by prayer,
From every Sunday-school. O! that, &c.

4 Teachers, too, shall meet above,
And our Pastors, whom we love,
Shall meet to part no more. O! that, &c.

5 O! how happy we shall be!
For our Saviour we shall see,
Exalted on his throne? O! that, &c.

6 There we all shall sing with joy,
And eternity employ
In praising Christ, the Lord. O! that, &c.

Mourners' Consolation. P. M

- 1 MOURNING soul, thy God is nigh ;
 Fix on him thy tearful eye ;
 In heaven there's peace for thee.
 O! that will be joyful, &c.
- 2 He will guide the weary through,
 He will calm the sigh of wo ;
 In heaven the weary rest. O! that, &c.
- 3 Does thy heart despond and faint ?
 Tell to Jesus thy complaint ;
 In heaven he hears thy prayer. O! that, &c.
- 4 Though thy path is one of wo.
 Through the vale where sorrows flow,
 In heaven no grief shall come. O! that, &c.
- 5 Brighter scenes the soul await ;—
 Onward press to heaven's gate ;
 In heaven the day ne'er ends. O! that, &c.
- 6 Then shall those whom thou hast known
 Bow with thee before the throne ;
 In heaven all love endures. O! that, &c.
- ~ All thy sorrow then shall flee,
 God thy glory ever be
 In heaven's eternal joy. O! that, &c.

ANDANTE.

1st and 2d Trebles.

Je - ru - sa - lem, my hap - py home, O how I long for thee!

When will my sor - rows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?

3 Thy gardens and thy pleasant walks
My study long have been;
Such dazzling views by human sight
Have never yet been seen.

4 If heaven be thus glorious, Lord,
Why should I stay from thence?
What folly's this, that I should dread
To die, and go from hence?

5 Reach down, O Lord, thine arm of grace,
And cause me to ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end.

7 My friends, I bid you all adieu,
 I leave you in God's care;
 And if I never more see you,
 Go on, I'll meet you there.

 Bright shining as the sun;
 We've no less days to sing God's praise
 Than when we first begun.

PIA. FOR.

Though humble our tribute, and feeble our lays, Yet he will at - tend when we sing.

- 2 He is the Good Shepherd whose bounty and grace
The sheep of his pasture may share ;
The wants of the least in his bosom have place,
But the lambs are his tenderest care.
- 3 He loves to watch o'er them, to bear them along,
And safe in his arms they shall rest ;
For while he protects them, what danger can wrong,
Or pluck from his sheltering breast !

4 O! Saviour in heaven, we pray thee attend,
And grant in compassion our prayer !
Be thou our Good Shepherd, our Father, and Friend,
And we, the dear lambs of thy care !

The Glory of Christ.

- 1 O Thou in whose presence my soul takes delight,
On whom in affliction we call;
My comfort by day, and my song in the night,
My hope, my salvation, my all.
- 2 Where dost thou at noontide resort with thy sheep,
To feed on the pastures of love?
Say, why in the valley of death should I weep,
Or alone in the wilderness rove?
- 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee;
Or cry in the desert for bread;
Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see,
And smile at the tears I have shed.
- 4 Ye daughters of Zion, declare, have you seen,
The Star that on Israel shone:
Say, if in your tents my Beloved has been,
And where with his flock he has gone?
- 5 This is my Beloved, his form is divine,
His vestments shed odours around;
The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine,
When autumn with plenty is crown'd.
- 6 His voice as the sound of the dulcimer sweet,
Is heard through the shadow of death,
The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
The air is perfumed with his breath.
- 7 His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow,
To water the gardens of grace;
From which their salvation the Gentiles shall know
And bask in the smiles of his face.
- 8 He looks, and ten thousand of angels rejoice,
And myriads wait for his word;
He speaks, and eternity fill'd with his voice,
Re-echoes the praise of the Lord.

MODERATO.

1 My soul, why sink when griefs oppress, Or start when fears a - larm ; Trust in the Lord,

2 Though hope and joy have from thee flown, And left thee to de - spair, Trust in the Lord,

Trust in the Lord, Trust in the Lord, in thy distress, Thy refuge is his arm, Thy refuge is his arm.

Trust in the Lord, Trust in the Lord ; in him alone Repose thine ev'ry care, Repose thine ev'ry care.

3 What though the floods may near thee roll,
Thy sky grow darker still,—
Trust in the Lord ; he keeps my soul,
And storms obey his will.

4 How oft when press'd by mighty foes,
Did no escape appear :
Trust in the Lord thou didst repose,
And came off conqueror.

5 And will he now his help deny,
And leave thee to thy lot ?
Trust in the Lord ; he still is nigh,
His nature changes not.

6 Yes, O my soul ! I yet will say,
Midst anguish and distress ;
'Trust in the Lord ! e'en though he slay,
My cause with him shall rest.

Hinder me not. C. M.

- 1 In all my Lord's appointed ways
My journey I'll pursue ;
Hinder me not, ye much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.
- 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus leads
I'll follow where he goes ;
Hinder me not, shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through duty and through trials, too,
I'll go at his command ;
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be,
Hinder me not ; come, welcome, death,
I'll gladly go with thee.

Detailed description: This is the first system of a musical score for 'The Good Shepherd'. It consists of three staves: a treble clef staff, a middle treble clef staff, and a bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked 'LIVELY.'. The music is written in a simple, accessible style with many eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics 'The flock he loves to trace With ever-watchful eye: So Christ our Shepherd, full of grace, To' are placed below the middle staff.

us is ever night, So Christ our Shepherd, full of grace, To us is ev - er night.

So Christ our Shepherd, full of grace,

Detailed description: This is the second system of the musical score. It continues the three-staff format from the first system. The lyrics 'us is ever night, So Christ our Shepherd, full of grace, To us is ev - er night.' are placed below the middle staff. Below the bass staff, the text 'So Christ our Shepherd, full of grace,' is written. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs on all three staves.

- 2 The sheep his kindness know,
When timid fear alarms ;
So we, affrighted, safely go
To our Redeemer's arms.
- 3 The lambs he gently leads
To pastures green and fair ;
And so the Saviour kindly feeds
The children of his care.

- 4 When stormy tempests blow,
He shields them from the cold ;
So to escape from sin and wo
We enter Jesus' fold.
- 5 Thy voice to hear we love,
Dear Shepherd ! be our guide ;
That we within thy fold above
Forever may abide.

Praise for the Sabbath. S. M.

|--|---|
| 1 The Sabbath of the Lord,
The Sabbath is our day ;
For then we read and hear God's word,
We learn to praise and pray. 2 That day with songs we bless,
It hath the light of seven,
When Christ, the Sun of Righteousness,
Shines on our path to heaven. 3 Ours is the Sabbath-school ;
Its lessons may we prize,
And grow by every gospel rule
Unto salvation wise. | 4 So all our lives below,
In wisdom's pleasant ways,
The fruits of Sabbath-schools will show
The bliss of Sabbath-days. 5 Lord of the Sabbath ! send Prosperity and peace,
Till tasks and teaching here shall end,
Tongues fail, and knowledge cease ; 6 Then heaven itself shall be
One Sabbath-school above,
And undisturbed eternity
One Sabbath-day of love. |

Praise to the Saviour. S. M.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 To praise the Saviour's name
Let little children try ;
While saints and angels do the same
In the bright world on high. 2 His love in heaven is sung,
His name is there adored ;
And children here, however young,
May learn to praise the Lord. 3 The wonders of that love
No earthly tongue can tell,
Which brought the Saviour from above,
To save our souls from hell. | 4 For us he wept and bled,
And suffered all his pain ;
For us was numbered with the dead,
And rose to life again. 5 And still for us he prays,
And makes our souls his care ;
He loves to hear our feeble praise,
And listens to our prayer. 6 Lord Jesus ! grant that we
May know thy saving grace :
On earth thy humble followers be ;
In heaven behold thy face. |

3 With outstretch'd hands and eager wings,
I'll mount from earth away;
Impatient haste shall speed my flight,
To reach those realms of day.
But, O! when safe the portals past,
What bliss without alloy!
My ravish'd soul shall then o'erflow,
And sing and shout for joy.

4 There shall I meet, in blest embrace,

Am I a sol-dier of the cross, A fol-lower of the Lamb?

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time, marked 'ALLEGRETTO'. The middle and bottom staves are piano accompaniment. The lyrics 'Am I a sol-dier of the cross, A fol-lower of the Lamb?' are written below the piano part.

And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name?

The second system of the musical score consists of three staves, continuing the vocal and piano parts from the first system. The lyrics 'And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name?' are written below the piano part.

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
 Must I not stem the flood?
 Is this vain world a friend to grace,
 To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
 Increase my courage, Lor!!
 I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
 Supported by thy word.

2 Weep not my friends, my friends, weep not for me,
 All is well, all is well.
 My sins are pardon'd, pardon'd, I am free,
 All is well, all is well.
 There's not a eloud that doth arise
 To hide my Saviour from my eyes;
 I soon shall mount the upper skies—
 All is well, all is well.

3 Hark, hark! my Lord and Master calls with grace,
 All is well, all is well.
 I soon shall see, shall see his heavenly face,
 All is well, all is well.
 Farewell, dear friends, adieu, adieu!
 I can no longer stay with you;
 My glittering crown appears in view—
 All is well, all is well.

The musical score consists of two systems, each with three staves. The top staff is the vocal line, the middle is the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom is the left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

If this be death, I soon shall be From eve-ry pain and sor-row free; I shall the King of glo-ry see— All is well, all is well.

4 Tune, tune your harps, ye saints in glory, sing ;
 All is well, all is well.
 I'll praise my God, my Saviour, and my King,
 All is well, all is well.
 Bright angels are from glory come,
 They're round my bed, they're in my room ;
 They wait to waft my spirit home—
 All is well, all is well.

5 Hail, hail, all hail ! all hail, ye blood-wash'd throng,
 Saved by grace, saved by grace,
 I've come to join, to join your rapturous song,
 Saved by grace, saved by grace.
 All, all is peace and joy divine,
 All heaven and glory now are mine ;
 O, hallelujah to the Lamb ;
 All is well, all is well

- 2 I would not live away, thus fetter'd by sin,
Temptation without, and corruption within :
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.
- 3 I would not live away ; no, welcome the tomb ;
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom ;
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise,
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
- 4 Who, who would live away away from his God ;
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode ;
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns :
- 5 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet ;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul !

The image shows a musical score for three parts: Treble, Piano, and Bass. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "Are e - nough for life's woes, full e - nough for its cheer." The score consists of three staves. The top staff is Treble clef, the middle is Piano (indicated by a brace on the left), and the bottom is Bass clef. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with a final double bar line and repeat dots.

Jesus in the Garden.

- 1 Thou sweet gliding Kedron, by thy silver stream,
Our Saviour would linger in moonlight's soft beam;
And by thy bright waters till midnight would stay,
And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.
- 2 How damp were the vapours that fell on his head!
How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed!
The angels beholding, amazed at the sight,
Attended their Master with solemn delight.
- 3 O garden of Olives, thou dear, honour'd spot,
The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot;
The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.
- 4 Come, saints, and adore him; come bow at his feet:
O give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

A - las! and did my Sa - viour bleed! And did my Sove - reign die!

Would he de - vote that sa - cred head For such a worm as I?

- 2 Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groan'd upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in;
When Christ, the mighty Saviour died
For man the creature's sin.

- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears:
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.
- 5 But tears of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

Oft - times those trou - bles I fore - go, When love sur - rounds my heart;

3 A few more days, or years at most,
 My troubles will be o'er;
 I hope to join the heavenly host
 On Canaan's happy shore:
 My rapturous soul shall drink and feast
 In love's unbounded sea;
 The glorious hope of endless rest
 Transporting is to me.

4 O come, my Saviour, come away,
 And bear me through the sky,
 Nor let thy chariot-wheels delay—
 Make haste, and bring it nigh;
 I long to see thy glorious face,
 And in thine image shine;
 To triumph in victorious grace,
 And be forever thine.

I'd rise su - pe - rior to my pain, With joy out - strip the wind ;
 In dark - est sha - dows of the night, Faith mounts the up - per sky—

I'd cross bold Jor - dan's stor - my main, And leave the world be - hind.
 I then be - hold my heart's de - light, And would re-joice to die!

5 Then I will tune my harp of gold,
 To my eternal King ;
 Through ages that can ne'er be told,
 I'll make his praises ring :
 All hail ! thou great, eternal God !
 Who died on Calvary,
 And saved me, with thy precious blood,
 From endless misery.

6 Ten thousand thousand join in one,
 To praise th' Eternal Three ;
 Prostrate before the blazing throne,
 In deep humility :
 They rise and tune their harps of gold,
 And string th' immortal lyre ;
 And ages that can ne'er be told,
 Shall raise their praises higher.

He Comes.

(Concluded.)

2 He comes where tears have started

From sorrows of mankind,
To bind the broken-hearted,
And raise the sinking mind.

He comes to break oppression ;

To set the captive free ;
Throughout sin's vast possession
Proclaiming liberty.

2 He comes a while to suffer,

Redemption to procure ;
And then his grace to proffer
Freely, to rich and poor.

He comes to gain the victory,
To bruise the serpent's head,
To captive lead captivity,
Alone the wine-press tread.

3 He comes : and with him bringing

That peace without alloy,
Which fills the wastes with singing,
And hills with bounding joy.

He comes, the way to heaven

Re-opening unto earth ;
And to his saints has given
Life, and immortal birth.

4 Our hearts shall hail his coming,

Our songs his love repeat :
And, all our honours summing,
We'll spread them at his feet.

All hail the King of glory !
Hosannas greet his birth !
Proclaim aloud the story,
He comes to reign on earth !

Hark! the voice of love and mer - cy Sounds a - loud from Cal - va - ry!

See, it rends the rocks a - sun - der, Shakes the earth, and veils the sky!

2 "It is finish'd"—O, what pleasure
Do these precious words afford!
Heavenly blessings without measure
Flow to us from Christ, the Lord;
"It is finish'd!"
Saints, the dying words record.

3 Finish'd—all the types and shadows
Of the ceremonial law;
Finish'd—all that God had promised;
Death and hell no more shall awe;
"It is finish'd!"
Saints, from hence your comforts draw.

4 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs,
Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name;
Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

2 Him, eye to eye, we there shall see,
 Our face like his shall shine:
 Oh, what a glorious company,
 Where saints and angels join!
 Oh, that will be joyful, &c.

Oh! that will be joy-ful, To meet to part no more. To meet to part no more, On

Ca-naan's happy shore, And sing the e - ver - last-ing song, With those who've gone before.

3 Oh, what a happy meeting there,
 When saints, in white array'd,
 Palms in their hands they all shall bear,
 And crowns upon their heads.
 Oh, that will be joyful, &c.

We are but young—yet we may sing The praises of our heavenly King;

He made the earth, the sea, the sky, And all the star-ry worlds on high.

2 We are but young—yet we have heard
The gospel news, the heavenly word:
If we despise the only way,
Dreadful will be the judgment-day.

3 We are but young—yet we must die,
Perhaps our latter end is nigh;
Lord, may we early seek thy grace,
And find in Christ a hiding-place.

4 We are but young—we need a guide;
Jesus, in thee we would confide;
O lead us in the path of truth,
Protect and bless our helpless youth.

5 We are but young—yet God has shed
Unnumber'd blessings on our head;
Then let our youth and riper days
Be all devoted to his praise.

Evening Thoughts. L. M.

| 1 My days on earth, how swift they run !
 Another Sabbath's nearly gone ;
 And who can tell but this may be
 The only Sabbath I shall see. 2 Since I am not too young to die,
 I would at once to Jesus fly ;
 His precious blood, for sinners spilt,
 Can wash away the foulest guilt. | 3 I would his word of truth believe,
 That little children he'll receive ;
 Their feeble prayer will not disdain,
 Nor shall they seek his face in vain. 4 On this dear Friend may I rely ;
 Then, should I soon be called to die,
 I need not fear, for death would be
 A welcome messenger to me. |

And then remember me.

The image shows a musical score for three parts: Treble, Alto, and Bass. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the staves. The score consists of 12 measures, with a double bar line and repeat sign at the end of each measure.

Lord, re-mem-ber me. From thy supremely high a-bode, O Lord, re-mem-ber me.

- 6 To thee shall all my days be given,
 Whate'er their number be;
 And these shall form a type of heaven,
 If thou remember me.
- 7 Preserve, O Lord, our children dear,
 From all corruption free;
 And bring them round thy throne t' appear,
 And then remember me.

- 8 And when to pass the lonely vale
 The curfew tolls for me;
 No terrors shall my heart assail,
 Remember'd, Lord, by thee.
- 9 And when the term of life shall close,
 And death shall set me free;
 Then, with a heavenly, calm repose,
 O Lord, remember me.

Lord, remember Me.

- 1 O Thou, from whom all goodness flows,
 I lift my soul to thee;
 In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
 Good Lord, remember me.
- 2 When on my aching, burden'd heart,
 My sins lie heavily,
 Thy pardon grant, new peace impart:
 Good Lord, remember me.
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
 And ills I cannot flee,
 O let my strength be as my day!
 Good Lord, remember me.
- 4 If, for thy sake, upon my name
 Shame and reproach shall be,
 All hail reproach, and welcome shame!
 Good Lord, remember me.
- 5 When, in the solemn hour of death,
 I wait thy just decree,
 Be this the prayer of my last breath,
 Good Lord, remember me.
- 6 And when before thy throne I stand,
 And lift my soul to thee,
 Then with the saints, at thy right hand,
 Good Lord, remember me.

Address to Youth.

- 1 COME, young people, love your Saviour;
Be entreated in his name;
Lo! his hands are full of favour,
Now, and evermore the same;
Mortal life! how brief its story!
Soon indeed it flits away;
And this world, with all its glory,
Is the bubble of a day.
- 2 Soon the opening grave will claim you,
Reptile worms devour your blood;
Death will draw his bow and slay you;—
None have yet his darts withstood.
O! how kindly does the Saviour
Call you to his loved embrace!
Offering you his richest favour,
If you will accept his grace.
- 3 See what glittering crowns are given,
Vestments glorious and divine;
Open'd are the gates of heaven,
Where eternal splendours shine;
Angels, from the heights of glory,
Hail you to their bowers of bliss;
Holding in their hands before you,
Crowns and robes of righteousness.
- 4 God himself comes down to move you,
Dwells in human flesh and blood;
And to show how much he loves you,
Pours a soul-atonement flood.
Lo! his heart is all compassion,
Love has brought him from the skies;
On the cross behold his passion,
Lo! for all the world he dies:
- 5 Then, ascending up to glory,
Opens wide the treasures there;
And—how wonderful the story!—
All the world may claim a share.
O, ye sons of dissipation,
Jesus bids you each receive
All the gifts of his salvation,
With a place in heaven to live.
- 6 Give your hearts to God forever,
And your earliest youthful love;
Give yourself to Christ the Saviour,
And his boundless goodness prove.
O, what beautiful scenes shall greet you!
Angels and archangels there;
Child and cherub soon shall meet you,
With an everlasting cheer.—J. RUSLING

How hap-py is the child who hears In-struc-tion's warn-ing voice;

And who ce-les-tial wis-dom makes His ear-ly, on-ly choice.

2 For she has treasures greater far
Than east or west unfold;
And her rewards more precious are
Than all her stores of gold.

3 She guides the young with innocence
In pleasure's path to tread;
A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the aged head.

4 According as her labours rise,
So her rewards increase;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.
